Automotive Center of Excellence

NEF & Resolux Group are a trusted provider of B and C Class components for the Automotive, Renewables, and Energy Storage sectors.

Our comprehensive product range includes custom fabrications, high-strength hardware, electrical assemblies, coated fasteners, consumables, shipping fixtures, and more.

With a focus on best cost sourcing and quality, we leverage an extensive global network of qualified manufacturers, alongside in-house fabrication and machining capabilities, to meet the Mechanical, Electrical, and C-Class needs of OEM, Tier 1, Tier 2, and O&M customers.

We pair its product offerings with tailored supply chain solutions, including Vendor Managed Inventory, Customized Kitting, PPAP Management, APQP, Supplier and Part Qualifications, Value Engineering, and Just-in-Time Point of Use delivery.

Our Products in Automotive

What sets us apart

At the Automotive Center of Excellence (ACE), our team will work directly with your engineering department to develop the best fastener solution for your new product launches.

Prototypes can be produced quickly with our advanced in-house manufacturing capabilities. Then, as the program moves from PPAP into production, our global footprint ensures we're able to support your manufacturing operation at the local level.

We are currently supporting many of the world's leading Tier 1 and 2 automotive suppliers. In 2024 NEF provided billions fasteners to the Tier 1 & 2 manufacturing facilities as a best-in-class automotive provider of engineered fasteners and hardware.
